

MANAGING YOUR PRACTICE THROUGH COVID-19 CASH FLOW, STAFF REDUCTION AND TELEHEALTH

Friday, March 27, 2020 | 12:15 - 1:15 PM

FREE | Online Video Seminar | No Registration Required

A recording of the seminar will be available following the meeting

<https://meetings.ringcentral.com/j/1484588411>

This one-hour, online training aims to provide private practice physicians with the information needed to manage the COVID-19 crisis in your practice. Learn how to handle layoffs with a labor law expert. Managing your cash flow in your practice and discussion of the telemedicine codes as you navigate your practice in this challenging time.

This is a live recorded program through RingCentral Meetings. The first 100 participants will have access to the meeting and the recording will be available as soon as possible following the meeting.

-SPEAKERS-

Debra Pharaïs is President of Practice & Liability Consultants, a nationally recognized firm specializing in practice management and malpractice prevention. Her consulting experience includes over 2,000 practices of all sizes and specialties. www.practiceconsultants.net

Mary Jean Sage of The Sage Associates. Her lecture engagements have included the AMA, CMA, many local medical associations and Medical Group Management Associations. She is recognized for her expertise in coding, billing, healthcare compliance and Medicare audit response.

The Williams Group, led by T. Hensley Williams, J.D., is a full-service human resources management consulting and training firm serving a national clientele in 18+ industries. Services include design and development of turnkey HR departments for start-up and expanding companies.