

I-84 CENTENNIAL WAY >>> FRANKLIN ROAD

I-84 Overnight Closures Ahead! (September 24 and 25)

The Idaho Transportation Department will close sections of I-84 in Caldwell this week to install overhead signs. These closures will occur overnight on Tuesday, September 24 and Wednesday, September 25, from midnight to 5 a.m. each night.

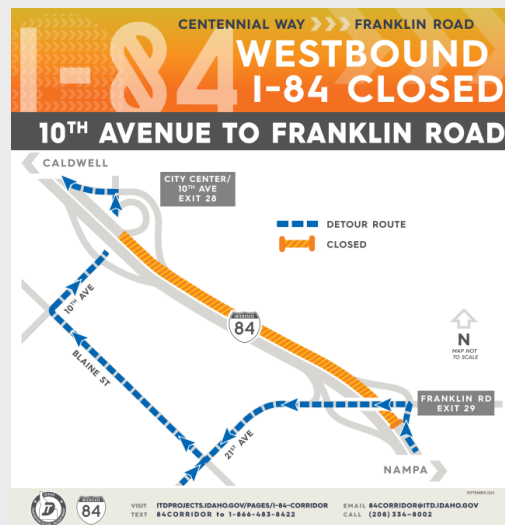

WHAT TO EXPECT:

Wednesday night, September 24:

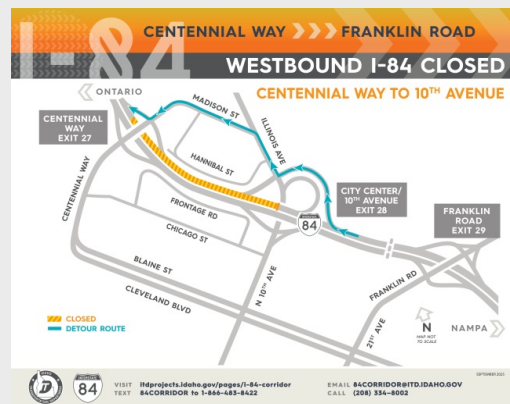

- All westbound lanes of I-84 will close between the Franklin Road and 10th Avenue interchanges.
- Motorists will detour using the Franklin Road westbound off-ramp (exit 29), Blaine Street and the 10th Avenue westbound on-ramp to re-enter I-84.

Throughout the week:

- Eastbound I-84 will have lane restrictions between 10th Avenue and Franklin Road each night from 10 p.m. to 5 a.m. while crews paint the pedestrian bridge over the interstate.

Plan ahead, slow down, and pay attention!

What's happening in the work zone is interesting and it can be tempting to look while driving by. Do your best to minimize these distractions and stay alert. Check out the project website and our monthly update videos to see what crews are up to!
