

Watch the September I-84 Corridor Monthly Update Now!

The Idaho Transportation Department is back with the September I-84 Corridor Monthly Update.

Have you ever wondered why we put up those orange and black signs? There is a whole system behind them, and this month we are taking a closer look at what goes into traffic control.

Join Matt Kreizenbeck and Styles Salek along with special guest Rex Adams, lead inspector for the Centennial Way to Franklin Road project, as they guide you through:

- What traffic control means and why it is important.
- A day in the life of an inspector.
- Updates on the Centennial Way to Franklin Road and Karcher Interchange projects.

Plan ahead, slow down, and pay attention!

What's happening in the work zone is interesting and it can be tempting to look while driving by. Do your best to minimize these distractions and stay alert. Check out the project website and our monthly update videos to see what crews are up to!

To plan your route in advance, visit 511.idaho.gov.

Persons needing an interpreter or special accommodations are urged to contact 208-334-8884 or TTY/TDD users Dial 711 to use the Idaho Relay System.
