

Join Us!

Engage in Milwaukee's Youth Justice Movement and utilize the City of Milwaukee Office of Violence Prevention Blueprint for Peace.

This is a community-driven event where our neighbors, friends, and colleagues will design a new approach to youth justice that centers the health and wellbeing of all. Elected officials who attend are encouraged to participate.

Session I

What is Youth Justice in Milwaukee?

Brief overview of Youth Justice in Milwaukee and Blueprint for Peace. Interactive discussion about the specific ideas presented, matching community to specific ongoing opportunities for involvement, and identifying additional dynamic needs and strategies.

Session II

What does Youth Justice NEED TO BE?

Review the existing continuum of care for youth in Milwaukee County and design a new approach with specific recommendations, within the domains of public health (including economic and racial justice), violence prevention, positive youth development, mental health and substance treatment, family and individual support, and justice system interventions.
