

Experience the

GOSPEL OF MARK

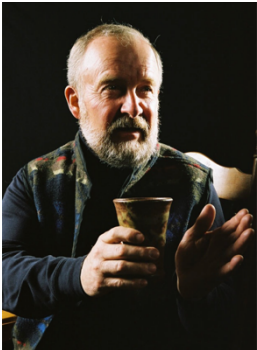

One voice.
No frills.
No theatrics.
Just one extraordinary story.

Hear the earliest of the gospel accounts as first Century Christians would have heard it: in one telling, entirely from memory.

Premiering Friday, May 21 at 7^{pm} on YouTube:

<https://youtu.be/WXpTcWHdcmk>

Presenter:

Patrick McWilliams taught literature and drama at the Phillips Exeter Academy, the Isidore Newman School (New Orleans) and the Illinois Math & Science Academy. He has been a year-long Klingenstein Fellow at Columbia University/Teachers College, a Teacher Fellow at St Andrews University (Scotland) and several times a Summer Fellow with the National Endowment for the Humanities. He has performed in and directed many stage productions and has sung with the New Orleans Symphony Chorus and the Renaissance Chorus of St Andrews University. Patrick is a member of St. John the Baptist Episcopal Church, Breckenridge.

QUESTIONS? Contact nkinney19@gmail.com

This presentation is offered as a benefit for the food ministry at St. George Episcopal Church, Leadville, including a renovation of its kitchen.

Please be generous! You can make your donation as follows:

Online: <https://stgeorgeleadville.com>

Mail: Send your check to

St. George Episcopal Church

P.O. Box 243

Leadville, CO 80461