Christian did a fantastic job selling our home. From the start he presented it as it should be presented. Use of photos, video, drone footage, and open house showed our home in the light that it deserved. He was quick to answer questions or concerns that I may have had. We agreed on the listing price, and ended up getting multiple offers over asking price. It's always hard to sell a home that is a part of you, but Christian made it a little easier.
