

A Chaplain with a Big Heart

The full-scale war in Ukraine has entered its fifth year. In the midst of this hardship, we are deeply grateful for partners like Yevhen Bondarenko—a pastor and chaplain whose sincere compassion and love continue to bring hope to those who need it most.

Serving in the Combat Zone

Yevhen lives and serves in the combat zone in southern Ukraine. Every day, he witnesses the pain of people suffering from the consequences of war, and he strives to be there for those who need support the most.

"I cannot allow myself to go to suffering and needy people empty-handed. I sincerely thank HART, which gives the opportunity and resources to go and serve people not only with words, but also with practical help."

— Pastor and Chaplain Yevhen

Life-Saving Supplies for Hospitals

During his trips, Yevhen visits both military and civilian hospitals. Along with spiritual encouragement, he brings life-saving supplies to those in critical need.

Medical Kits

Tourniquets, emergency medical supplies, and complete medical kits for immediate care

Fire Safety

Fire extinguishers for putting out fires in dangerous frontline conditions

Power & Light

Generators and power banks that provide light, warmth, and communication

Reaching the Most Dangerous Places

Pastor Yevhen also visits believers in towns and villages where very few people dare to travel because of the danger of shelling and drones. There, under the constant threat of rockets and artillery, people especially need encouragement, prayer, and simply the presence of another human being.

Essential Supplies for Frontline Living

He also delivers gas cylinders and portable cooking stoves, as well as instant food supplies — everything that is essential for people living in frontline areas.

Sharing God's Word

But together with material aid, he brings the most valuable thing of all — God's Word, which brings hope even where it seems that hope has almost disappeared.

Community, Encouragement & Presence

Under the constant threat of rockets and artillery, people especially need encouragement, prayer, and simply the presence of another human being. Pastor Yevhen brings all of this — and more.
