

One Bed. Many Lives Changed.

"Whoever is kind to the poor lends to the Lord, and He will repay them for what they have done." — Proverbs 19:17

Can a bed really change a life? It may not seem like a grand gesture, but often the most lasting change begins with the simplest gifts. A bed can become a quiet, powerful expression of God's love to a child and their family.

More Than Just Furniture

For families uprooted by war, forced from their homes, or displaced by crisis, a bed is far more than furniture. It can mean the first true place of rest they have known in months — a small but sacred space that brings safety, steadiness, and dignity back into daily life. For a child, it means sleeping through the night in their own bed, with room to breathe, dream, and simply feel at home.

Safety

A bed offers children a secure, stable place to rest after displacement and hardship.

Dignity

Having their own space restores worth, comfort, and a sense of belonging.

Hope

A simple bed says, “You matter” — and brings comfort to an entire family.

The Bunk Bed Project

In 2024, HART launched the Bunk Bed Project made possible through the generous support of donors. This project is a reminder that even one bed can bring real change — offering comfort, security, and hope to an entire family. Because of your hearts and support, children and parents alike can rest knowing they are cared for, protected, and not alone as they look toward a better tomorrow.

Families Served

Families who received beds, blankets, pillows, and bed linen

Each bed came with two blankets, two pillows, and two sets of bed linen, making each bed warm and complete. In this way, practical help becomes Gospel in action — quiet, tangible faith lived out through compassion and service.

Each Bed Tells Its Own Story

The Yushchuk Family

The Yushchuk family has walked through deep sorrow. After their mother passed away, two children were left to live with their grandmother, sleeping on mattresses. Today, they finally have a bed of their own — a simple gift that brings comfort, dignity, and the warmth of being cared for. Glory to God.

The Novak Family

The Novak family, from a village in western Ukraine, has two boys, Tymofii and Davyd. Receiving a bunk bed was more than a practical gift — it brought comfort, joy, and the feeling that they are cared for at home. Mother's heartfelt comments:

"You fulfilled the dream of Tymofii and Davyd. We thank God and you — His helpers — for your support and for giving us a cozy place to sleep."

Families Touched by Your Generosity

The Slivchuk Family

The Slivchuk family is preparing to welcome another child. Your gift of a bed brings not only comfort and rest, but also a sense of warmth and hope to their home during this special season of anticipation.

The Pysarchuk Family

Despite living with great hardship, the Pysarchuk family continues to hold on with courage and love. The elder sister writes:

"Our family lives in a one-room apartment in a dormitory (shared bathroom & kitchen facility). Our mother has schizophrenia, and our father has passed away. Mom works as a cleaner and earns very little. We barely make ends meet. Thank you for remembering us and providing such tremendous help. We love you!"

The Yutkevych Family

Because of the war, this family has had to carry an immense burden in their daily lives, with even the simplest routines shaped by uncertainty and hardship. For their children, finally receiving a real bed was more than a practical gift — it brought a sense of safety, rest, and comfort that had been out of reach for far too long. Their mother shared these heartfelt words:

"Because of the war, the situation is difficult. My children used to sleep on an old sofa and folding bed, and we couldn't afford a real bed. We are so happy. Thank you! May the Lord bless you abundantly!"

The Streumoukhov Family

A single mother shoulders the work of raising seven children on her own, carrying each day with a strength that is quiet, steadfast, and deeply moving. In a life marked by hardship and constant responsibility, receiving a bed was not only a practical gift — it was a tender sign that someone sees her struggle, shares in her burden, and cares enough to bring comfort, rest, and dignity to her family.

"Thank you for the bed. It is a true blessing for our family!"

More Than a Place to Sleep

For children, these beds have become more than a place to sleep. They are a small sanctuary at the end of a hard day — a place to rest, to pray, and to feel held in care. For parents, they bring a deep breath of relief and a quiet renewal of hope, a reminder that even in the hardest seasons, they are not alone.

Rest & Peace

A gentle place to unwind after a long day, pray before sleep, and settle into calm.

Feeling Cared For

Each bed quietly tells a child and their family: you are seen, loved, and remembered.

Holistic Support

HART also provides food and medical supplies, helping families meet everyday needs and care for their children with greater hope.

One Bed — One Family. One Act of Love — Many Changed Hearts.

In a world marked by uncertainty and hardship, even the smallest act of kindness can become a lifeline. Through this project, God's love takes tangible form—meeting families in their need, bringing comfort in their suffering, and reminding them that they are not forgotten.

We want to thank every generous donor whose compassion and faith have made the Bunk Bed Project possible. Your kindness has been a true blessing to so many families in need—bringing comfort, dignity, and renewed hope into homes that needed it most. Because of you, children have a place to rest in peace, and parents can breathe a little easier knowing they are not alone.

And the need remains urgent. We invite you to continue standing with this work so that even more families can be reached with beds, support, and the hope of Christ. Together, by God's grace, we can keep turning compassion into action and sharing His love in ways that are simple, real, and life-giving — one bed, one family, one act of love at a time.

Right now, we still need 30-40 more bunk beds to meet the growing demand.
