

HOSPITALITY HOUSE JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

TITLE: Peer Service Advocate
REPORTS TO: Program Manager, Tenderloin Self- Help Center
COMPENSATION: $42,320 annually, plus benefits
STATUS STATUS: Full-time, non-exempt, union position
SCHEDULE: 9am-5pm, Monday through Friday

ORGANIZATION DESCRIPTION:

Founded in 1967, Central City Hospitality House is a progressive, community-based organization located in San Francisco's Tenderloin neighborhood that provides opportunities and resources for personal growth and self-determination to homeless people and neighborhood residents. Our mission is to build community strength by advocating policies and rendering services which foster self-sufficiency and cultural enrichment. We use a peer-based approach and encourage involvement from our participants on various levels of decision-making and service-delivery.

Hospitality House has six programs. The Tenderloin Self-Help Center and Sixth Street Self-Help Center are behavioral health-based community centers that provide a range of emergency and support services using a low-threshold, peer-based, self-help model. The Shelter Program is a small men's dormitory that provides basic emergency shelter as well as one-on-one case management. The Community Arts Program is a unique space where individuals can create, house and sell artwork, offering open studio hours, workshops, a creative writing class, and an opportunity for artists to exhibit and sell their work. The Community Building Program includes a peer volunteer training program, program activities, and the Healing, Organizing & Leadership Development Program which is a peer internship community organizing program for participants impacted by trauma. The Employment Program offers job readiness services, employment and training resources, and job search support through two neighborhood-based employment resources centers. All programs work together to provide a range of support, resources, and opportunities for people to achieve stability and self-sufficiency.

POSITION DESCRIPTION:

Under the supervision of the Program Manager, the Peer Service Advocate will provide crisis intervention, peer counseling, and employment advocacy in the Employment Services component of the Sixth Street Self-Help Center to motivate participants to engage in services, reduce harm, and improve their physical, emotional, and economic health. The Employment Peer Service Advocate will staff Employment Resource Center (ERC) activities and assure the safety and comfort of participants, providing respectful, compassionate, culturally-competent, attentive treatment of participants as well as effective outreach and engagement of individuals who may have difficulty engaging with services. The Peer Service Advocate will have a working knowledge of resources in San Francisco and will link participants to appropriate programs, accompanying them to appointments and providing advocacy, as needed.
