MARK 10: 46-52

Jesus and his disciples came to Jericho. As he and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!” Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, “Son of David, have mercy on me!” Jesus stood still and said, “Call him here.” And they called the blind man, saying to him, “Take heart; get up, he is calling you.” So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. Then Jesus said to him, “What do you want me to do for you?” The blind man said to him, “My teacher, let me see again.” Jesus said to him, “Go; your faith has made you well.” Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

Activity: Blind Man’s Bluff

One player is designated as being the Blind Man. They will wear the blindfold.
The Blind Man will count to five as the other players spread out around the room.
The Blind Man will then move about the room, trying to find the players.
Once they find a player, they must identify who it is. That person becomes the Blind Man.
However, if they guess incorrectly, that person is freed and can leave the playing area.
