

Healthy Pima Indicators

The Healthy Pima Indicators are a set of measurable health-related areas that, when focused on collectively, can improve health in Pima County. Tracking these important areas helps diverse groups and organizations work together to make our community healthier and support overall well-being.

STRENGTHEN PUBLIC & COMMUNITY HEALTH

Access to healthy foods

Adverse childhood experiences

Vaccinations

Heat

EQUITABLE ACCESS TO HEALTH CARE

Health insurance

Access to primary care and behavioral health care

OPTIMIZE INDIVIDUAL HEALTH STATUS

Perceived health and wellness

Sexually transmitted infections

REDUCE PREMATURE MORTALITY

Unintentional injury

Cancer

Cardiovascular disease

Pilot Indicators

Pilot Indicators have been identified as important to improving health outcomes but may lack clarity or an agreed upon process of how they can be measured.

DIABETES PREVALENCE

UNINTENTIONAL PREGNANCY

PUBLIC HEALTH RESPONSE RELATED METRIC

SOCIAL EMOTIONAL SUPPORT

FIREARM-RELATED INJURIES AND DEATHS