

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN READING PROGRAM 2019

New books have been added to our library that are a part of the UMW Reading Program. Each year the UMW sponsor a reading program that promotes missions, prayers, study and action. If you are interested in reading for plan participation, see Carol Steele or check in the library in the special section marked for UMW. You do not have to be a member of the UMW to join the reading program. The program runs until August 1, 2019, so you have plenty of time to read and report. Books from 2014-2019 (marked on the book spine with blue tape) qualify for the program. We encourage YOU to be a part of this educational study. New books added this year and their categories:
