

Information about The Directors Trio

The Directors Trio consists of Renee Page, Kevin Smith, and Minone Frizzelle. Our performances are filled with a mix of Southern Gospel and traditional with a little bit of soul thrown in. It is our desire as a group to show each audience that the Savior is alive within everyone who believes, and as Christians, we should sing His praises so the masses can hear us. Clapping, singing, tapping your feet, and dancing are not mandatory when we sing, but they sure do make life a little more fun. We want you to leave with a smile on your face and the love of God in your heart.
