

Alamance County: History and Hope

WHAT: A pilgrimage through lesser told stories of our racial history, some tragic and some holding tremendous hope for a future that builds upon a rich history of interracial collaboration.

WHEN: Sunday, May 5th. 3-7:30pm

WHERE: First UMC, Graham

303 N. Main St., Graham

Donations welcome for meal.

Please Register at:

<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/5080B4BA5AC28A5FA7-alamance>

Sponsored by C.A.R.E., (Christians Concerned about Racial Equity) a project of the UMC Dismantling Racism Team

Meal provided by Chicken 'n Chops, a local African American-owned catering service.

Featuring the African American Culture, Arts and History Center, executive director Ms. Jane Sellars, and Jonathan Wilson Hartgrove of Repairers of the Breach and School for Conversion.