

HARC's

Interfaith Book Club

A new kind of book club

(no reading required!)

Is there a book you've read
that's inspired you?

If so, please join us on Sunday, June 4 from 2 to 4 p.m.

This June, the Interfaith Team of the Hagerstown Area Religious Council (HARC) is offering "Print & Potluck," a book club with NO REQUIRED READING!

We'll gather outdoors at a private home in the Hagerstown area, and share what book—prose or poetry, fiction or nonfiction—has inspired us individually. A book that has moved us to think, learn, feel, relax, or do.

Come with or without the actual book (but with title and author), and with finger food to share.

Please RSVP by June 1 to director@harccoalition.org or call 301-842-4272 to receive the host name and address.

