

COLORADO
COMMUNITY COLLEGE SYSTEM

Diversity Recruitment Fair

We're changing the way Colorado goes to college. But we need your help.

CCCS is hiring great instructors to teach classes across the state — starting with you. Come to our January 10th job fair, talk to representatives from the colleges, and learn about our teaching opportunities. If you are an expert and passionate in your field, we have a classroom with your name on it.

Colorado's largest higher education system seeks teachers as diverse as our student body.

CCCS is committed to diversifying our workforce to reflect the students we serve. We believe that diversity promotes innovation and contributes to our success, and we seek to recruit, develop, and retain the most talented individuals with a commitment to inclusive excellence.

Come to our Diversity Recruitment Fair. And bring your resume.

- Resume reviews will be available throughout the workshop
- Attend an interviewing workshop (tips will be offered!)
- 2:30 – 3:15: Attend a panel of faculty and staff who will share their experiences at CCCS and why it is so important that we diversify our workforce (Q&A with the audience).
- 3:30 – 4:00: Hear CCCS Chancellor Joe Garcia talk about his direction for CCCS, how diversifying our workforce impacts student outcomes

Why you should be an instructor at CCCS:

- Give back to the community
- Share your expertise with others
- Diversify your income
- Enhance your career

Before you apply:

- Assignments require a Bachelor's degree or Master's credit, depending on the discipline
- Available assignments across the state of Colorado
- Face to face and on-line assignments available
