Annual Reading Week

To celebrate Read Across America Week, we have a fun-filled week of reading planned for the week of March 2! This year we are adding a new twist. We will be doing fables and folktales that are similar in French and English. Our week will include the following:

Messner Puppet Theatre: We will kick off our reading week on Monday, March 2 with a special presentation of Animal Amigos put on by the Messner Puppet Theatre.

Student Book Lottery: Each day we will draw the names of 4 students. These 4 students will select a book to keep from a book lottery.

Book Cover Contest: Students have the opportunity to create a book cover and submit it in our book cover contest. Information about this was sent home on Friday, February 21.

Parent Volunteer Readers: As we have done in the past, adult volunteers will come in to the classrooms at 10:45 and read to the students. A fable or folktale will be provided for the volunteer to read, and a book of the volunteer's choice may be brought to share as well. Volunteers can be parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, older siblings, etc. If you did not receive the sign-up sheet via email and would like to sign up, contact your child's English teacher.

Scholastic Book Fair: The Scholastic book fair will be open the following times:

Wednesday, March 4: 7:30-8:30 & 4:00-5:00

Thursday, March 5: 7:30-8:30 & 4:00-5:00

Friday, March 6: 8:00-4:00 (During Parent-Teacher Conferences)

Spirit Week:

- ⇒ Monday, March 2: The moral of the day is "A kindness is never wasted". We will celebrate kindness as a school as we enjoy a Paul Messner puppet show titled Animal Amigos.
- ⇒ Tuesday, March 3: The moral of the day is "Don't believe everything you hear-not everyone has your best interest at heart". We will hand out heart stickers for students to wear as a reminder.
- ⇒ Wednesday, March 4: The moral of the day is "There's a time for work and a time for play. Wear your thinking cap (a hat or cap from home) to keep focused during our "working day" at school.
- ⇒ Thursday, March 5: The moral of the day is "In unity is strength". Dress as your favorite storybook character. We'll unite celebrating literature with a parade at the end of the day.

Students who do not wish to dress as a storybook character should wear the required school uniform.
