Booth fees go into the PTSO general fund. What you make as a vendor is yours. Should you wish to donate sales of a particular item or a percentage of sales in addition to your booth fee, we would certainly be grateful, but there is no obligation.

Please make checks payable to Académie Lafayette, write Holiday Art Market in the memo.

Please describe the kind of work you would be selling. Include links to a website, Etsy shop, etc. if applicable.

Photos or digital images will also be accepted. Work must be high quality, hand-crafted items made by the vendor present at the Market. Images and links will be used to determine participation in the event, placement at the event, and promotion of the event. It is imperative that images represent the work and are of sufficient quality to use in our marketing. Digital information may be sent to Annie at ClarkWorksCustom@gmail.com, along with any questions or concerns.
