

FROM OUR PHOTOGRAPHER

My name is Brian Searby, I am a photographer in the DC area and former CCPC parent. While my kids were at the school I started taking school portraits of all the CCPC students so parents would have the opportunity to order prints. Noni has graciously invited me back and last week all the kids had their portraits taken. They were great and we had a wonderful time! Here is the gallery link where you can view and order prints.

This will bring you directly to the gallery. All you have to do is click the desired photo(s), add to cart, choose the print sizes or products(top right tab) and then proceed to checkout. You can checkout as a guest or open a free account. Once in checkout you will enter your billing and shipping information and the prints will be processed. If there are any questions there is a contact link on the gallery page or just email me directly at briansearby@gmail.com

Several parents have also requested to view the photos from last year as well so I have reopened that gallery for any interested. Here is that link

Neither gallery is searchable online and only those with these URLs can view. Both galleries will expire on May 31st so make sure to get your orders in before then.
