

Albany County Mental Health Commissioner Honored with Albany Bridge Builders Award

Congratulations to Albany County Mental Health Commissioner Stephen Giordano, PhD, who was recently recognized with the Albany Bridge Builders Award from ALERT Partnership, Inc. Dr. Giordano was honored alongside Policy Analyst Stefanie Thomas from the Albany County Executive's Office for their leadership, integrity, and commitment to strengthening community partnerships.

The Albany Bridge Builders Award celebrates individuals who demonstrate outstanding collaboration and engagement across sectors to improve community safety and well-being. Dr. Giordano's dedication to mental health advocacy and cross-system collaboration continues to serve as a model for building stronger, healthier communities.

