

NEED SOME HELP WITH YOUR TECH?

try
TECH TALKS WITH LISA!

Lisa Perez is the Digital Volunteer at Literacy Works. She regularly meets with tutors and teachers to boost their tech skills.

Who would benefit from a Tech Talk appointment?

teachers and tutors looking to add more tech into their lessons whether they're in-person or virtual.

What are Tech Talks for?

- to practice new tech tools you can use in lessons
- to practice using tech in a supportive environment
- to support people who are new to all things tech but are interested in learning more

What have other people used these appointment for?

volunteer tutors have met with Lisa to boost their Zoom skills, prepare virtual tutoring lessons, and learn how to make virtual flashcards to use in-person or online.

How do I make an appointment?

- Check Lisa's calendar and schedule
