HAKARAT HATOV

Morey Wildes - you have dedicated years of service, first on LSS committees and for the last three years as President. The Presidency always requires true commitment and in addition to that, you dealt with getting the shul through COVID and re-emerging post pandemic as a still vibrant shul. You helped us get through one of the most challenging times in history and you did so with poise, thoughtfulness and determination. The countless hours you have spent helping and supporting the shul has made us all the stronger as a congregation. Thank you!

Jay Ziffer - from yahrtzeit plaques, to Mishloach Manot packages, supporting us as secretary at Board and Membership meetings and all while still making sure to put aside time for officer meetings and office support, you have truly done it all and with a smile. Your committed service has been integral to the shul. The shul is only as good as its volunteer base and you have set an amazing example for what it means to help build the community in which you live and call home. Thank you!

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR INCOMING PRESIDENTS

Dear LSS members and community,

We are incredibly excited to share the role of Co-Presidents of Lincoln Square Synagogue and look forward to serving the community over the coming years. We are aware that a co-presidency is a bit unusual, so we thought we would take a moment to share our thinking about this somewhat novel approach.

When the officers considered who among us would next serve as President, we both wanted to raise our hands. We have been Officers of the shul for many years and both of us believe deeply in service – to community, to family, to shul. It is a big job and given other life responsibilities, we were each concerned that we lack sufficient bandwidth to fill this big, time-consuming, unpredictable role. We decided to do the job together. We have known each other for many years and work very well together. We can backstop each other and be each other's solution if one of us is tied up during "drop everything and focus on the shul" moments, of which there are many. We think of this as one team, one presidency, with coverage of shul and community needs by the proverbial two heads that are better than one. (Actually, as Springsteen fans, we might say, "two hearts are better than one!")

Although we anticipate working well together, we are not the same person and will have different points of view from time to time. As those occasions arise, we expect to resolve issues respectfully and believe that the shul will benefit from healthy discussion between the Presidents to arrive at an answer. In addition, we are incredibly fortunate to work with a wonderful team of dedicated Officers and the shul's incredible staff and clergy.

Hopefully this note addresses the main questions about this structure. We both love the shul very much and want to do all we can to help it continue to thrive. We welcome your feedback and suggestions and look forward to getting to know all of you. Thank you for your involvement!! Wishing you a wonderful summer.

Michael and Paris
