

SPRING 2019

YOUNG FARMER OFFICERS

Young Farmers is a club that is based in the MJC Agriculture department. It hosts events and activities such as the upcoming basketball tournament that brings students together with similar backgrounds and interests. It is led by students elected by the club members, and by two professors in the agriculture department, Mr. Amador and Mrs. Boyd.

President:

2019 SPRING President Kara Lipke. Kara is from the small town of Yreka in northern California. She is majoring in Agricultural Business and will be transferring to CSU Chico in the fall. She is passionate about agriculture and enjoys helping out at her family's commercial cattle ranch, hiking, and socializing with friends. She is looking forward to meeting new people and having a good time this semester!

Vice President:

2019 Spring Vice President Liliana Trejo. Liliana is from Northern California in a small town called Montague. Her major is Agriculture Business with the ultimate goal to become an accountant. She will be transferring to Fresno State this fall. She likes hanging out with her friends and family, showing livestock, and team roping. She looks forward to making this semester one to remember and leading along her fellow Young Farmer Officers.

Secretary:

Your 2019 Spring Secretary Morgan Nunes. Morgan is from Turlock, California. She is an Agriculture Business major and hopes to transfer to Cal Poly San Luis Obispo in the fall to continue studying the field that she loves. She is currently the President of the Dairy Club at MJC and loves working on her family dairy, playing basketball, and hanging out with her family and friends. With this being her last semester at MJC she hopes to make it fun and successful as a Young Farmer Officer!

Historian:

Your 2019 SPRING Historian Josephine Booth. Josephine is from northern Idaho in a town called Post Falls. Her major is Animal Science with a goal of becoming a Large Animal Veterinarian. She likes showing livestock, spending time with family and friends as well as enjoys snowboarding. She looks forward to meeting all of this year's Young Farmer members.

Reporter:

2019 Spring Reporter Elizabeth Neves. Elizabeth is from Hilmar, CA. She is double majoring in Ag Business and Dairy Science with a goal to become a registered dairy inspector. She is currently the Vice-President of the dairy club and is a member of the dairy judging team. She spends her free time getting her dairy cattle ready for the next dairy show.

Treasurer:

Your 2019 Spring Treasurer Sergio Arias. Sergio is originally from Santa Maria, Ca. He is an Animal Science major with hopes in transferring to Fresno State University to continue his education. He enjoys working with livestock as well as traveling to different livestock shows around the country. This being his last semester he hopes to make it the best by being super involved and can't wait to meet his colleagues which will be tomorrow's leaders. He hopes to be a successful Young Farmer Officer as well as have a good time with everybody.

ICC Representative:

Your 2019 Spring Historian Edwin. Edwin is originally from Southern California in the city of Fullerton. Edwin is major in agriculture sciences with a focus in plant science. After MJC, he wishes to transfer to CSU Chico. Edwin enjoys working with livestock, helping with events, and spending time with friends and family. He is looking forward to meeting all of you this semester.