POINT

In association with Zephyr Point Presbyterian Conference Center, Rev. Bruce Reyes-Chow will invite us to claim and proclaim what it means to be RESURRECTION PEOPLE in a time marked by cruelty, division, and fear. He will invite and challenge us to boldly embrace and share a gospel rooted in the activism, discipline, empathy, and imagination of Jesus Christ.

BRUCE REYES-CHOW is a pastor, speaker, writer, coach, and podcaster whose work focuses on faith, leadership, activism, race, culture, and technology. He is the author of six books, most recently Everything Good about God is True: Choosing Faith.

ZEPHYR POINT PRESBYTERIAN CONFERENCE CENTER invites all to experience God through education, inspiration, and exploration on the shores of Lake Tahoe. Offering lodging, programming, activities, and events, Zephyr Point is a site of renewal and refreshment where the fabric is thin between heaven and earth.
