

PACM Swears in 33rd Association President

The Pennsylvania Association of Court Management (PACM) held its annual conference via Zoom on Monday, June 7, 2021. There were over 100 members in attendance. The meeting opened with remarks by Chief Justice Max Baer and State Court Administrator Geoff Moulton.

During the meeting, association members witnessed the swearing in of the new Board members, including Mark Singer, District Court Administrator of Franklin & Fulton Counties, as the 33rd PACM President.

Mark has been with PACM for 11 years, and has spent the past several years on the Board, first serving as a regional director, then treasurer, vice president, and president-elect. He will serve a one-year term as president of PACM.

Mr. Singer was sworn in by the Honorable Shawn D. Meyers, President Judge of the 39th Judicial District. Prior to swearing in Mr. Singer, President Judge Meyers provided a few kind words, noting Mark's eagerness to lead PACM, and that his presidency is the culmination of many years of dedication to the association. He noted Mark's devotion to his family, his wife Angie and their children Olivia, Abby, and Joey. "Family means a great deal to Mark," reported President Judge Meyers. The president judge also spoke of Mark's dedication to the 39th District, and the citizens of Franklin & Fulton Counties, and most notably Mark's work with the multiple committees of the judicial district. President Judge Meyers closed his remarks by saying how proud he was that PACM's new president was coming from the 39th Judicial District and that while the celebration did not include the usual banquet and fanfare, he assured the membership in attendance that they were getting a great leader in Mark.
