

OFFICIAL DIARY OF THE UNION

Posted on 15/10/2019 | Edition: 200 | Section: 1 | Page: 24

Organ: Ministry of Economy / Minister's Office

ORDINANCE NO. 559 OF OCTOBER 14, 2019

Amends Ordinance MF No. 112, of June 10, 2008, which provides for the special customs regime of duty free shop in ports and bonded airports.

The MINISTER OF STATE OF THE ECONOMY, in the use of the attribution conferred by item II of the sole paragraph of art. 87 of the Constitution, and in view of the provisions of art. 15 of Decree-Law no. 1,455, of April 7, 1976, in arts. 476 to 479 of Decree No. 6,759, of February 5, 2009, in art. 14 of the Mercosur Baggage Customs Regime, approved by Common Market Council Decision No. 53 of 2008, internalized by Decree No. 6.870 of June 4, 2009, resolves:

Art. 1 Ordinance MF No. 112, of June 10, 2008, is effective with the following changes:

"Art. 9th

Single paragraph. The sale of goods exempt to passengers arriving from abroad, under the terms of item III of art. 10, will be made up to the limit of US $ 1,000.00 (one thousand United States dollars) or the equivalent in another currency per passenger, subject to the provisions of art. 11. "(NR)

"Art. 11. The special taxation regime applies to goods purchased at a store of arrival, in an amount that exceeds the global value limit of US $ 1,000.00 (one thousand United States dollars) or the equivalent in other currency, subject to RFB control requirements and procedures.

..... "(NR)

Article 2 This Ordinance shall enter into force on January 1, 2020.

PAULO GUEDES

This content does not replace published content in the certified version.