

On this day in history

September 17, 2026

1787

U.S. Constitution signed

1796

George Washington prepares final draft of farewell address

1862

The Allegheny Arsenal explodes, killing 78 people

1862

Battle of Antietam breaks out

1868

Cheyenne and Sioux battle frontiersmen at Beecher's Island

1939

Soviet Union invades Poland

1967

The Who literally spark an explosion on national television

1976

NASA unveils its first space shuttle, the Enterprise

1978

Camp David Accords signed

1983

Vanessa Williams becomes first Black Miss America

1996

Oprah launches influential book club

2011

Occupy Wall Street begins