

On this day in history

September 14, 2026

1812

Napoleon enters Moscow

1814

Francis Scott Key pens “The Star-Spangled Banner”

1847

General Winfield Scott captures Mexico City

1862

North and South clash at the Battle of South Mountain

1901

President McKinley dies of infection from gunshot wounds

1927

Dancer Isadora Duncan is killed in car accident

1959

Soviet probe reaches the moon

1964

John Steinbeck awarded the Medal of Freedom

1964

Pop-Tarts debut

1974

Eric Clapton's "I Shot the Sheriff" hits No. 1

1975

Elizabeth Ann Seton becomes one of the first American-born saints

1982

Hollywood star and real-life princess Grace Kelly dies

1988

Dolores Huerta beaten by police while peacefully protesting

1994

MLB cancels playoffs, World Series

1999

Millions flee from Hurricane Floyd

2015

Muslim teen arrested for bringing reassembled clock to school

