

On this day in history

September 21, 2026

1780

Benedict Arnold commits treason

1792

Monarchy abolished in France

1904

The great Nez Perce leader Chief Joseph dies in Washington

1915

Stonehenge is sold at auction

1938

The Great New England Hurricane

1939

FDR urges repeal of Neutrality Act embargo provisions

1942

The Superfortress bomber takes flight

1949

Mao Zedong outlines the new Chinese government

1955

The Daughters of Bilitis become the first lesbian rights group in the U.S.

1983

A 13-year-old newspaper delivery boy is found dead

1985

George Clooney makes “Facts of Life” debut

1999

Earthquake kills thousands in Taiwan

2008

Last baseball game played at historic Yankee Stadium