

Additional Resources

From Week 1

Carbon Footprint – A great resource for reducing your carbon footprint.

<https://www.carbonfootprint.com>

Lutherans Restoring Creation – A grassroots movement in the ELCA.

<https://lutheransrestoringcreation.org>

Minnesota Interfaith Power and Light, one of our mission partners, has many resources.

<https://mnipl.org>

From Week 2

Adopt-a-Drain – Tips on how to clear a storm drain, how organic debris leads to water pollution, how to prevent runoff pollution, and how to dispose of what you collect.

<https://adopt-a-drain.org>

Earth Day – Ways to take action.

<https://www.earthday.org/take-action-now/>

Eco-Faith Network MPLS – An earth-keeping initiative of the Minneapolis Area Synod of the ELCA

<http://mpls-synod.org/outreach/ecofaith-network>

Energy Kids from the U.S. Energy Information Administration, “Using and Saving Energy in Homes” <https://www.eia.gov/kids/using-and-saving-energy/homes.php>

Seven Benefits of Eating Local Foods (MSU Extension)

https://www.canr.msu.edu/news/7\_benefits\_of\_eating\_local\_foods

From Week 3

Farmer’s Markets are located throughout the Metro area. Find one near you and learn more. Learn more about farmers markets.

It’s not just the water that you (or our climate) are paying for. Real cost of bottled water.

Real ways to make your communication with policy makers more effective.

Advice for effectively influencing U.S. House and Senate members