Objectives

The WBCs (World Business Community) is a limited, virtual group of up to 100 busy executives who prioritize communication for learning, change, and selfimprovement. The focus is on providing executives with access to webinars, podcasts, and seminars on relevant and topical topics. WBC aims to help other executives get their jobs done. It also offers mentorship opportunities, networking with diverse industries, and potential supply chain collaborations for members and, clients. The WBCs hosts an annual hybrid conference for in-person and virtual interaction and invites sponsors to exhibit and network to attendees

Solution

The WBCs value trust, passion, results-orientation, disruption, diversity, economic development and environmental consciousness. Membership benefits include access to a trustworthy and diverse community, exclusive communication networks, webinars, podcasts, events, and partnerships. The WBCs benefit the community by promoting continuous learning in areas such as personal development, employee management, client and partner connections, media management, and government relationships amongeach other and other leaders.. The WBC members, partners and advisors are encouraged to invest in themselves and their personal growth.
