Edina PCN and The Blake School Present

Stereotypes and Healthy Gender Identity

Dr. Jennifer Bryan, Ph.D.

Dr. Jennifer Bryan is a nationally recognized expert on gender identity and sexuality. She has worked in public and private schools nationwide helping educational organizations navigate the emotionally charged issue of gender identity with dignity and respect. Gender and sexuality identity are central components of healthy development for all kids ages preK through 12th grade. Dr. Bryan believes we need as many thoughtful and informed adults as possible supporting healthy student development.

Dr. Bryan has been a practicing psychologist since 1994, and has specialized in gender and sexuality consultation in schools since 2001. Dr. Bryan received her masters and doctorate in Counseling Psychology at Teachers College, Columbia University. Dr. Bryan did her graduate clinical internship in Psychology at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst and is the author of From the Dress-Up Corner to the Senior Prom: Navigating Gender and Sexuality Diversity in PreK-12 Schools. Dr. Bryan is presented in partnership with The Blake School.
