2018 Albert Mann Pinot Blanc

Biodynamic, 35-year-old vines on gravel and clay limestone.
Hand-harvested from Kientzheim and Wettolsheim.

Pinot Blanc for me is the classic Thanksgiving white wine.

The Barthelmé brothers, viticulturist Maurice and winemaker Jacky, were awarded Winemakers of the Year 2012 by Revue de Vin de France. They are rated both by Wine Advocate and Vinous to be in the top tier of Alsace producers. With a three-star rating in The Classement by Revue du Vin de France, Domaine Albert Mann is now heralded the world over. Never heavy, clumsy or out of balance, each carefully crafted vintage presents a beautiful delineation of flavors and precise textures. ---Peter Weygandt

2017 Domaine Rapet Chorey-Les-Beaune

Red wine. Burgundy, France. Sustainable. 100% Pinot Noir. From vines that are over 50 years old, on average." The 2017 Chorey-lès-Beaune Vieilles Vignes is a success, offering up attractive aromas of wood smoke and earthy blackberry fruit. On the palate, it's medium-bodied, supple and open-knit, with melting tannins and a giving personality. It's an unusually charming interpretation of Chorey."—87 Points, William Kelley, Wine Advocate (January 2019)
