American Freedom Foundation

The AFF Story

SMA (R) Jack L. Tilley

Ted Hacker

- Founded by the former 12th Sergeant Major of the Army (retired) Jack L. Tilley, and Ted Hacker, music business executive in 2004.
- Based upon the impact of two Sergeant Major of the Army's Hope and Freedom music tours to Iraq, Afghanistan, Kuwait and Uzbekistan at Christmas in 2002 and 2003.
- Single purpose to create awareness and build support for the service, sacrifice and needs of our Veterans, military service members and their families. "Serving Those Who Served".

American Freedom Foundation

Mission and Vision

- Purpose: In return for their service and sacrifices made for our country, the American Freedom Foundation believes Veterans, military service members, and their families are deserving of support that empowers and enables them to lead confident and productive lives.
- Mission: The American Freedom Foundation honors, serves and supports Veterans, military service members, and their families by building awareness and understanding of their service, sacrifice and needs through partnerships with military focused organizations.
- Vision: American Freedom Foundation is, and always will be, relentlessly driven to bettering the lives of Veterans, active military service members, and their families.

Warriors To The Workforce

Warriors To The Workplace is part of the American Freedom Foundation's nationwide initiative to help our Veterans, transitioning military service members and military spouses find meaningful employment. The event brings together major companies from throughout the country to profile their services and provide employment opportunities to prospective jobseekers. Attendees at our events have the chance to talk with employers, submit qualifications, participate in job interviews, have their resumes reviewed and participate in a rotating schedule of professional development workshops led by subject matter experts on transition from military to civilian life.
