

Webinar: The Impact of COVID-19 on Paediatric Orthopaedic Surgery in Canada

Date: Tuesday, May 5th, 2020

Time: 8 – 9:30pm EST

Register NOW

<https://jnimeetings.zoom.us/meeting/register/tJAtc-2pqzMoGNGwD0iGcvqM-2THI-vN4cGe>

Educational Platform sponsored by J&J

Moderators: Dr. Kevin Smit, Dr. Debra Bartley, Dr. Ron El-Hawary

PROGRAM

The impact of COVID-19 in the paediatric patient

Dr. Maryanne Crockett

Section Head, Pediatric Infectious Diseases
Associate Professor, University of Manitoba

How Has COVID-19 Affected Perioperative Care at SickKids?

Dr. Simon Kelley

Associate Professor, Division of Orthopaedic Surgery, Department of Surgery, University of Toronto

The impact of COVID-19 on pediatric orthopaedic surgery in New York City

Dr. Jaime Gomez

Assistant Professor Orthopaedic Surgery
Albert Einstein College of Medicine

Being redeployed by COVID-19; a pediatric orthopaedic surgeons experience from the UK

Dr. Helen Chase

Consultant Paediatric Orthopaedic Surgeon
Norfolk and Norwich University Hospital & West Suffolk Hospital

Recommendations for the Care of Pediatric Orthopedic Patients During the COVID Pandemic

Dr. Kishore Mulpuri

Associate Professor, Division of Pediatric Orthopedics, Department of Orthopaedics, Faculty of Medicine, University of British Columbia

Variations amongst Canadian pediatric orthopedic practices during the COVIS-19 pandemic - early results of the CPOG questionnaires

Dr. Caroline Forsythe

Associate Professor, Université Laval, Pediatric Orthopaedic Surgeon, Centre Mère-Enfant Soleil

Response to COVID-19: It's a Team Sport

Dr. Ron El-Hawary

Professor, Dalhousie University
Chief of Pediatric Orthopaedics, IWK Health Centre

Open Discussion