

Roadways to the Bench: Who Me? A Bankruptcy or Magistrate Judge?

The federal Judiciary, led by the Judicial Conference Committees on the Administration of the Bankruptcy System and the Magistrate Judges System, will hold the second iteration of the national diversity event for law students and attorneys, "Roadways to the Bench: Who Me? A Bankruptcy or Magistrate Judge?"

When:

- April 3, 2023, at 4 p.m. ET at the WVU College of Law in Morgantown, West Virginia, as well as 37 other locations across the United States.
- A cocktail and heavy hors d'oeuvres reception will be held immediately following the roundtable event in the Fitzsimmons Event Center.

Local Roundtable Sessions:

- After the national presentation, the program will proceed to in-person local roundtable sessions among law students, attorneys, and federal district, magistrate and bankruptcy judges from West Virginia.

Event Registration and Contact information:

Registration is required and invitations will be limited. The registration window will open on January 31, 2023, and close on March 24, 2023. Registration and attendance is limited to attorneys and law students and will be awarded on a first come, first serve basis. Available seats may fill up before the registration window closes on March 24, 2023, so please register early. To register, complete the linked registration form or scan the QR Code below.

Applicants will be notified by email of their acceptance as an attendee. Only applicants receiving a written email invitation may plan to attend the event.

Contact Monica Nassif Haddad at monicahaddad@comcast.net for more specific information about the event, including registration questions.

