

AGENDA

Forensic Psychology/Psychiatry Issues In Civil and Criminal Law

- I. General Issues and FAQs (Dr. Clayman)
  - Lawyers and Forensic Evaluators: A challenging collaboration.
    - Service possibilities.
  - Purpose and Components of a Forensic Report/Evaluation.
  - What we need to do our job.
  - Distinguishing between Forensic and Therapeutic Reports.
  - Psychological Testing: What you might need to know.
  - Functional vs. Diagnostic Approaches.
    - Mental Illness v. Personality Types
  - Putting clinical data into context.
- II. Psychological and Neuropsychological Assessment Issues (Dr. Cody)
  - Defining Neurocognitive Issues: CHI and TBI.
  - Data from Neurological and Neuropsychological Testing: The total picture.
    - Presenting a data-based picture of function
  - Evaluating validity of test results: Deception, Embellishment, Response Bias and MALINGERING.
  - Effort and Symptom Validity Testing.
- III. Wide applications of Risk Assessment: Trying to Predict the Future (Dr. Stevenson)
  - Defining concerns in Criminal and Civil Cases.
    - Fitness for Duty, Risk Assessment, and Return to Work
    - Family Issues
    - Diversion and Rehabilitation
    - Self-harm and Injury to others.
  - Applications of Structured Professional Judgement.

Presenters: Clayman & Associates

- David A. Clayman, Ph.D. - Clinical, Medical and Forensic Psychologist
- Steven G. Cody, Ph.D. - Clinical, Neuropsychological, and Forensic Psychologist
- Nathaniel R. Stephenson, Psy.D. – Clinical and Forensic Psychologist