The Life of Billy Kim

1. Describe Kim's childhood and family of origin. How do you sense his challenging upbringing shaped him into the adult person of faith he became?
2. What role did Carl play in Kim's life, and how might God have been at work in Carl before Carl even became a person of faith?
3. What were the hardships of Kim's decision to leave Korea and come to America with Carl?
4. At Bob Jones University, Billy Kim met his future wife Trudy. Describe Trudy's personality. What role did she play in the calling God put on Billy's life?
5. How did God bless Billy Kim's efforts in establishing a new church in Korea and what obstacles did Kim face in getting the church up and off the ground?
6. How did Kim's faith principles undergird his leadership of his worldwide evangelistic Christian business endeavors?
7. What role did technology (radio, television) play in Billy Kim's desire to spread the gospel?
8. What impact did Kim have on other famous/important people including Billy Graham, Castro, and United States presidents?
9. How did Kim receive the money to do what he did over the course of his ministry? What was Kim's attitude toward money?
10. At the end of the book, Kim writes: "Never ask God to simply make history but ask for miracles to unfold." Why do you think Kim ended the book with this statement?
