

St. Charles Borromeo Catholic School, a parish, co-educational school, in Bloomington, Indiana, is seeking a RN/LPN to perform in a dual role as school nurse and teaching assistant. The school nurse is responsible for maintaining student records, creating health plans, and caring for students from daycare through 8th grade. The applicant will have the ability to prioritize work independently with excellent communication skills. Applicant must have strong assessment and documentation skills, and able to triage as necessary. Biannual, and as needed education, for staff with the ability to create improvement policies as needed. There is also a need to delegate care, as appropriate to office staff. The teaching assistant role is a hands on role with students in 1st and 2nd grade. Your primary role is to assist the teachers as needed in the education of the students including, but not limited to: small group work with students, grading, copies, bulletin boards, recess, and classroom projects. The ideal candidate will have pediatric experience. Must be a licensed RN/LPN in the State of IN and hold current CPR license.

For more job related information, email a resume to Madonna Paskash mpaskash@stcharlesbloomington.org

Principal
St. Charles School
Bloomington, IN