April 11: Gilbert L. Gigliotti, PhD – Sinatra: A Storied Singer

From the “Sinatramania” of the Bobbysoxers, through his storied fall and rebirth, to his becoming the Chairman of the Board (and beyond!), Frank Sinatra embodied the “American Century.” In this presentation, Dr. Gigliotti, Professor of English and Latin at Central Connecticut State University, will discuss some of Sinatra’s most entertaining, powerful, and significant performances in song and film – with a peek behind the scenes at his wives, lovers, friends, and politics.

In addition to his academic position, Dr. Gigliotti has been the host for almost three decades of “Frank, Gil, and Friends” every Tuesday morning on WFCS 107.7 FM and wfcstradio.com. He earned his PhD in comparative literature at The Catholic University of America. His books on Frank Sinatra and Ava Gardner belie his more traditional academic interests in early American poets like Anne Bradstreet and Phillis Wheatley, the late 18th-century writers The Connecticut Wits, and the literature of ancient Greece and Rome.

April 25: Aye Aye Thant – “Burma 101: A Personal Perspective”

Aye Aye Thant, Trustee of the U Thant House in Yangon, Myanmar, will give us a brief introduction to Burma/Myanmar’s modern history and culture. She will also share her personal history in Myanmar, starting from childhood and culminating in her journey to the US. In addition, she will share memories of her father, U Thant, the third Secretary-General of the United Nations.

The U Thant House, the home of U Thant and his family in the 1950s, was restored in 2013 as a small museum dedicated to the memories of U Thant, his vision, and his ideals for peace. Programs at U Thant House are “guided by the values espoused by U Thant – internationalism, education for peace, tolerance, and non-discrimination.”

Aye Aye Thant founded the U Thant Institute in 2003 to reflect on her father’s vision of a world that is safe for diversity and to foster peace by promoting a spirit of “One World.” She was President of the Institute until 2011 when it was dissolved. The Institute organized annual luncheons and lecture series to address current issues and problems facing the world, donating the proceeds to the appropriate organizations.

For the Institute’s inauguration, Aye Aye Thant compiled a booklet entitled “One World – the Vision of U Thant,” with excerpts from her father’s speeches and writings as well as photos from his years at the United Nations. She also reprinted his book, View from the UN.

The Y's Women Newsletter

Be Part of the Y's Women Leadership Team

We need a new Vice President to replace Margaret Mitchell at the end of June, when Margaret becomes President. The Vice President is responsible for identifying speakers for our Monday meetings, communicating with the speakers, and introducing them at our meetings.

The Vice President's responsibilities can be shared by a committee, rather than assigned to one person. Also, the Vice President does not need to search for speakers alone. She could receive speaker suggestions from other Y's Women, community members, and past speakers. Some speakers already have been identified for the coming year.

Please consider participating in this process by suggesting a possible Vice President, pursuing your own interest in this position, or agreeing to assume some of its responsibilities. We all want our organization to succeed and to continue to offer interesting speakers at the Monday meetings, and we need to work together to make this happen.

You can obtain more information, offer suggestions, or provide assistance by contacting any of the following Y's Women:

- Arline Gertzoff, Nominating Committee Chair, mgertzoff@snet.net or 856-0160
- Barb Stephen, President, dynamicr@icloud.com or 247-7989
- Margaret Mitchell, VP, margaret06824@yahoo.com or 255-9094

The Movie Club will meet on Wednesday, April 20, at Panera Bread. We meet informally at 1:00 pm to give members a chance to socialize and/or eat lunch, and we begin our discussion at 1:30. We ask that all attendees have been vaccinated.

Our movies for April are Woman in Gold and Midnight in Paris. Woman in Gold is scheduled to be broadcast at 9:00 pm on April 9 on the WNET network of PBS as part of Reel 13 Classics. If you do not see or record this movie when it is originally broadcast, you may be able to see it through a PBS playback system (such as Thirteen Passport) or other streaming service such as Hoopla. Midnight in Paris is available through Netflix. The DVDs for both movies are also listed in the catalogs of the Westport and Fairfield Libraries.

Woman in Gold is a 2015 biographical drama directed by Simon Curtis and written by Alexi Kaye Campbell. The film stars Helen Mirren, Ryan Reynolds, Daniel Brühl, Katie Holmes, Tatiana Maslany, Max Irons, Charles Dance, Elizabeth McGovern, and Jonathan Pryce. It is based on the true story of Maria Altmann, an elderly Jewish refugee living in Cheviot Hills, Los Angeles who, together with her young lawyer, Randy Schoenberg, fought the government of Austria for almost a decade to reclaim Gustav Klimt's iconic portrait of her aunt, Adele Bloch-Bauer. The painting was stolen from her relatives by the Nazis in Vienna just prior to World War II. Altmann took her legal battle all the way to the Supreme Court of the United States, which ruled on the case Republic of Austria v. Altmann in 2004.

Midnight in Paris is a 2011 fantasy comedy written and directed by Woody Allen. Set in Paris, the film follows Gil Pender (Owen Wilson), a screenwriter, who is forced to confront the shortcomings of his relationship with his materialistic fiancée (Rachel McAdams) and their divergent goals, which become increasingly exaggerated as he travels back in time each night at midnight. Produced by the Spanish group Mediapro and Allen's US-based Gravier Productions, the film also stars Kathy Bates, Adrien Brody, Carla Bruni, Tom Hiddleston, Marion Cotillard, and Michael Sheen. It premiered at the 2011 Cannes Film Festival and won critical acclaim, being considered one of Allen's best films in recent years. In 2012, it won the Academy Award for Best Original Screenplay and the Golden Globe Award for Best Screenplay.

If you wish to be added to the email list for future events, please contact Margaret Mitchell at margaret06824@yahoo.com or 255-9094.
