September 2021

The Y's Women Newsletter

Dear Y's Women,

Welcome back!

We are looking forward to resuming in-person meetings this September. We plan to follow our usual schedule (second and fourth Mondays of the month, social hour at 10:45 am, meeting at 11:30). Our new meeting location is Branson Hall of Christ and Holy Trinity Church, 75 Church Lane, Westport.

We are closely reading guidelines identified by the CDC, Health Departments, and other medical professionals. We also are watching the experience of other local organizations such as libraries, schools, and senior centers. We plan to follow health guidelines and make any changes needed to follow these guidelines, which currently require us to wear masks indoors, socially distance as much as possible, and eliminate high-contact interactions. This means we are NOT serving coffee or other refreshments at our meetings until it seems safe to do so. Feel free to bring a beverage and/or snack for yourself. We all enjoyed these refreshments in past years, and we look forward to the time we can do this again.

Best regards,

Barb Stephen, President

Margaret Mitchell, Vice President

GENERAL MEETINGS

September 13: Anjali McCormick, The Roadmap Forward for the Westport Weston Family YMCA

Anjali Rao McCormick, CEO of the Westport Weston Family YMCA, will share with us some historical information about the organization and her vision for its future.

Anjali McCormick grew up in Kolkotta, India. When she was 16, her family immigrated to the United States, and she enrolled at Jericho High School in Long Island. She attended Harvard College, performed in the Radcliffe Choral Society as a first soprano, majored in government, and wrote a senior honors thesis about the economic liberalization policies of India in the 80s.

After graduation, Anjali traveled to New York and worked for Citibank as a management associate. She has an MBA in Marketing from NYU's Leonard Stern School of Business, and worked for American Express for seven years on a variety of interesting projects before informing her employer – on September 10, 2001 – that she wanted to stay home to raise her family. This was a very fortuitous decision, given that the World Trade Center was her subway stop.

Ten years ago, Anjali joined the Summit Area YMCA as Director of Marketing and held several positions in the organization before becoming CEO of the Westport Weston Family YMCA in May 2021. She is committed to ensuring the Y is a valued, vibrant cornerstone of the community and is passionate about making a meaningful difference in the lives of individuals and families. She expects to do so by nurturing the potential of youth, motivating healthy living, and fostering a sense of social responsibility in the community.

September 27: Pam Keough, Make-A-Wish Connecticut – ‘Don’t Wait for Hope. Create It’

Make-A-Wish Connecticut has granted more than 3,600 wishes in the past 35 years, but do you know exactly what they do and how the magic happens? Pam Keough, President and CEO, will give us an inside look at the life-changing wishes

Make-A-Wish Connecticut grants and discuss common misconceptions people have about wish kids and the organization. She also will introduce us to Jake, a wish alum, who will share his and his family’s wish experience and perspective. COVID-19 has proven challenging, with chapter revenue down by 50%, but the chapter took its cues from the strength and resilience of wish kids and their families. It was able to creatively grant more than 100 wishes during a time when hope was needed most. Pam also will give us a glimpse into the chapter’s future, with a sneak peek of its brand-new Wishing Place, a home for hope and healing.

Pam earned an undergraduate degree in Quantitative Methods and a master’s degree in Management Information Systems. She began her career in information technology as an internal auditor and spent the bulk of her career as a senior executive at Gen Re. After a successful career in the corporate world, traveling to more than 40 countries, Pam decided to stick closer to home and transition to nonprofit management. Her original dream was to work with children and become a teacher, so it is no surprise that she feels fulfilled and rewarded granting life-changing wishes to children with critical illnesses.

We plan to discuss Thelma and Louise and Twelve Angry Men. Both movies were shown at 9:00 pm on the WNET network of PBS as part of Reel 13 Classics (Thelma and Louise on August 28; Twelve Angry Men on September 4). If you did not see or record these movies when they were originally broadcast, you may be able to see them through a PBS playback system (such as Thirteen Passport) or other streaming service such as Hoopla. Also, Twelve Angry Men is listed in the catalogs of the Westport and Fairfield Libraries; Thelma and Louise appears in the Fairfield Library catalog.

Thelma and Louise tells the story of “meek housewife Thelma (Geena Davis) who joins her friend Louise (Susan Sarandon), an independent waitress, on a short fishing trip. However, their trip becomes a flight from the law when Louise shoots and kills a man who tries to rape Thelma at a bar. Louise decides to flee to Mexico, and Thelma joins her. On the way, Thelma falls for sexy young thief J.D. (Brad Pitt), and the sympathetic Detective Slocumb (Harvey Keitel) tries to convince the two women to surrender before their fates are sealed.”

In Twelve Angry Men, “Following the closing arguments in a murder trial, the 12 members of the jury must deliberate, with a guilty verdict meaning death for the accused, an inner-city teen. As the dozen men try to reach a unanimous decision while sequestered in a room, one juror (Henry Fonda) casts considerable doubt on elements of the case. Personal issues soon rise to the surface, and conflict threatens to derail the delicate process that will decide one boy’s fate.”

If you wish to be added to the email list for future events, please contact Margaret Mitchell at 255-9094 or margaret06824@yahoo.com.
