Horizon House Receives $75,000 Grant from KPMG U.S. Foundation

Horizon House will use the grant money to expand and enhance vital & basic needs services to neighbors experiencing homelessness.

INDIANAPOLIS – February 18, 2025 - Horizon House has received a three-year, $75,000 grant from the KPMG U.S. Foundation that will be transformative to the agency in its effort to combat and help end the cycle of homelessness. Horizon House will utilize the grant to expand services within its Housing Hub that includes 19 community partners dedicated to addressing the barriers neighbors face to secure housing. Furthermore, these funds will help secure essential resources & supplies for residents moving into our permanent supportive housing (PSH) program.

“Horizon House is honored & humbled to be the recipient of a three-year, $75,000 grant through the KPMG U.S. Foundation”, said Jeffrey Rode, Horizon House Chief Operations Officer. “This generous award will allow us to continue providing access to critical services for our neighbors experiencing homelessness through our Housing Hub with access to employment services, case management, peer support, healthcare, permanent supportive housing and more”.

The KPMG U.S. Foundation awarded the grant as part of its vision to increase equity and access to opportunities for all. Its charitable efforts focus on education, mental health, and community vitality.

"As part of the Indianapolis community, KPMG is incredibly proud to support and collaborate with an organization that empowers individuals to grow and achieve a better quality of life," said Eric Sutphin, KPMG Indianapolis Office Managing Partner. "By working with Horizon House, we aim to create an even greater positive ripple effect across the Indianapolis community, where so many of our employees live and work."
