BROOKE'S PLACE RECEIVES GRANT FROM J E FEHSENFELD FAMILY FOUNDATION

INDIANAPOLIS, IN, May 5, 2021 – Brooke's Place for Grieving Young People announced a $7,500 grant from the J E Fehsenfeld Family Foundation to support its Ongoing Grief Support Groups.

“We are grateful for the J E Fehsenfeld Family Foundation's investment in the Ongoing Grief Support Groups program, which will help us provide peer support groups for young people ages 3 - 29, who have experienced the death of a significant person,” said Theresa Brun, Executive Director. This partnership enables the youth in our community to know that they are not alone in their grief.”

Brooke's Place Ongoing Grief Support Group program is the only ongoing peer-based grief support group in Central Indiana. Groups meet twice a month and are led by trained volunteer facilitators, offering grief based play and a variety of expressive arts activities.

About Brooke's Place

Established in 1999, Brooke's Place provides ongoing grief support groups, therapy services, and community education to empower children, teens, young adults and their families to thrive in the midst of grief. For the last 21 years, Brooke's Place has served more than 16,000 individuals. With an estimated 73,000 children expected to experience the death of a loved one in Central Indiana before the age of 20, there will always be an ongoing need in our community for the programs provided at Brooke's Place.
