GET TO KNOW NATE HUDDLESTON

YOUTH MINISTRY VISIONING COMMITTEE

Episcopal Diocese of Washington | Diócesis Episcopal de Washington

WHO IS CHRIST TO YOU?

Jesus Christ is my Lord and Savior
and I put my whole faith and trust
in his grace and love.

I continue to grow in my knowledge of who he is
by loving him, learning from him and
following in his footsteps;
searching out every avenue to experience his grace
in the church, in his Gospels, and in other people.

WHY DO YOU LOVE YOUTH MINISTRY?

Youth Ministry is at the heart
of my love for a faith that is generative.
I truly believe that at no point in your life
are you more open to God's call than when you are a teenager.
You are searching for an Identity
and if that Identity is rooted in Jesus Christ
then you are ahead of the game in so many ways.

WHAT IS A HOPE YOU HAVE FOR YOUTH OF THE DIOCESE?

I hope that youth will be encouraged, welcomed, engaged and transformed in this diocese.

I hope that here, young people will find lasting bonds of Christian fellowship that will help flourish a new generation of people who have a fierce belief that they are loved and can build the Kingdom of God.

Episcopal Diocese of Washington

Diócesis Episcopal de Washington

NATE HUDDLESTON

serves at Christ Church Georgetown,

in the Central DC region of the diocese.