GET TO KNOW JOSHUA DANIEL

YOUTH MINISTRY VISIONING COMMITTEE

Episcopal Diocese of Washington | Diócesis Episcopal de Washington

WHO IS CHRIST TO YOU?

Jesus is a close friend and a distant acquaintance.

He is someone I'm sure I know very well and someone I feel like

I'm meeting for the first time, again.

Jesus is someone I speak out for;

and someone who summons me

and calls me home.

WHY DO YOU LOVE YOUTH MINISTRY?

Many of the youth I know in this diocese are deeply excited and curious about their faith.
They're filled with hope and respond to the challenges that face our communities and world.
As a rule, they are not jaded or standoff-ish.
They call me to a deeper faith in Jesus.

WHAT IS A HOPE YOU HAVE FOR YOUTH OF THE DIOCESE?

The Diocese is part of the larger faith community that exists beyond just the walls of a parish. It represents a larger community than we will ever know and inspires a sense of collective action and solidarity.

My hope is that youth get a chance to taste that, as I have.

Episcopal Diocese of Washington

Diócesis Episcopal de Washington

JOSHUA DANIEL

serves at St. Columba's Episcopal Church, in the Northern DC region of the diocese.