GET TO KNOW SHIVAUN WILKINSON

YOUTH MINISTRY VISIONING COMMITTEE

Episcopal Diocese of Washington Diócesis Episcopal de Washington

WHO IS CHRIST TO YOU?

The humanity of Christ, Jesus who is in it with us,
who cries with us, laughs with us, takes our frustration,
and protects us in our fear, is such a deep comfort.
The Christ who calls us beyond ourselves to what is next, what is possible, and beyond our limits makes us grow deeper in faith and discipleship.
Christ is the balance of being loved
and being challenged by God
who is always in relationship with me.

WHY DO YOU LOVE YOUTH MINISTRY?

There are so many things to love about youth ministry.

I think one of my favorite things is how

"resurrection" geared youth ministry truly is.

No lesson ever is the same,

no conversation ever takes the same shape.

It is such a beautiful reminder that we are called to ministry right in the moment.

Youth ministry is always recreating, resurrecting,

and manifesting Christ in new and unexpected ways.

WHAT IS A HOPE YOU HAVE FOR YOUTH OF THE DIOCESE?

I hope to be a part of a youth ministry that gives young people both the education and empowerment that they need to continue pursuing Christ and Christ's work in the world.
I would love to see a reality where youth
sit on major diocesan committees
and see before themselves both the avenues
and mentorship they need to discern
and take up their cross to follow Christ.

Episcopal Diocese of Washington Diócesis Episcopal de Washington

SHIVAUN WILKINSON

serves at St. John's Episcopal Church, in the Northern Montgomery County
region of the diocese.