Judge Seth M. Marnin
MA ‘94, Liberal Studies and BA ‘92, Women’s Studies and Sociology

Tuesday, February 13
6:30 - 7:30 p.m.
Campus Center West Auditorium
Reception to follow in the Great Hall

Open to all
Registration required.
Scan the code to register:

Judge Seth M. Marnin grew up in Albany, NY and earned his BA and MA at the University at Albany. He was appointed to the NYS Court of Claims by Governor Kathy Hochul in June 2023. A noted speaker on LGBTQ issues, hate crime laws, discrimination, civil rights, religious liberty, the First Amendment and academic freedom, Marnin has co-authored friend-of-the-court briefs in numerous cases before the U.S. Supreme Court and appellate courts around the country. He is the first out transgender judge in the State of New York and the first transgender man on the bench anywhere in the U.S.

FACILITATOR
Julie Novkov
Dean, Rockefeller College of Public Affairs & Policy

AUDIENCE Q&A FACILITATOR
Samuel Caldwell
VP for Inclusive Excellence and Equity

INTERVIEWER
Havidán Rodríguez
President, University at Albany

INTERVIEWER
John B. King, Jr.
Chancellor, State University of New York

This event is sponsored by:
Division of Student Affairs | Office of Diversity and Inclusion | UAlbany Alumni Association
Office of Government and Community Relations | Office for Public Engagement
Office of Intercultural Student Engagement | University Auxiliary Services