

DHRUVA PATHAM

(CALIFORNIA REGIONAL PROGRAM FOR CHILDREN)

*Program is Free
&
Open to Children of All Languages*

Program

“Dhruva Patham” is a regional interactive learning program for children whose roots are from Indian sub-continent. This program is designed and developed based on teachings of “Sanathana Dharma” and “Cultural Practices” followed in the Indian sub-continent. This initiative is an outcome of the advice from Guru Brahasri Samavedam Shanmukha Sarma garu, renowned worldwide for his Pravachanams and knowledge on Vedas.

(<https://rushipeetham.org>)

Guru

Sri Hari Venkata Sastry Garu, a practicing engineer from Bay area, California, who is highly respected for his knowledge on Vedas, Sanathana Dharma and cultural practices of India. Sastry garu is an active advisor to many Bay-area based Hindu temples. It is a great gift of opportunity to learn from Sastry garu.

Teachings (explanations, discussions in English)

- ⇒ Explanation about Sanathana Dharma in simple terms
- ⇒ Slokas practice sessions for regular chanting, explanation about sloka and its spiritual Significance
- ⇒ Story telling from Puranas, Ithihasas illustrating Sanathana Dharma & relevance to present living
- ⇒ Hands on fun activities/simple projects connecting children to cultural practices
- ⇒ Values based teachings: Respecting elders, listening and practicing what they learn at home, school, and connection to their own culture
- ⇒ Daily / weekly practice for perfection in learning

Venue & Timings:

Venue: Veda Temple 475 Los Coches St, Milpitas, CA 95035

Date: Since September 2018

Time: 4.00 pm - 5.00 pm

- In-person classes: Saturdays during 1st & 3rd week of each month 4.00 pm -5.00 pm
- Online classes: Saturdays during 2nd & 4th week of each month from 4.00pm- 5.00 pm
- In Class activity is highly recommended to attend the follow-up online classes

For further details call or text Ph: 510-858-4527
Or email dhruvatham1milpitas@gmail.com