ART IN THE FORM OF FILM

OCTOBER SKY / JAN 21 FRIDAY 5:45-9pm

Based on the true story of Homer Hickman, someone you've likely never heard of, this 1999 film is inspirational, sincere and full of heart. Homer grew up in a small mining town deep in the heart of West Virginia. To say it was an environment unsupportive of science is an understatement, but Homer managed to build, while in high school, a rocket, after watching Sputnik cross the sky in 1957. Everything works in this film from the story itself, to the actors, to the directing. Truly a great film!

Instructor Paul Marino leads the discussion. Sponsor: Chases on the Beach – Where It's Always Sunny. $7 includes glass of wine or bottle of water

BROADWAY AT THE HUB THE SOUND OF MUSIC / JAN 7

FRIDAY 5:15-9pm

Enjoy this filmed live performance that aired on NBC in December 2013. Carrie Underwood stars as Maria. Rogers and Hammerstein's The Sound of Music debuted on Broadway in 1959, the story of a young potential nun, Maria, who in 1938 arrives at the Austrian home of the widowed von Trapp as governess to his children. The Captain runs the house and family with military precision and discipline. Maria gradually melts the Captain's heart. They wed and, when he is pressed into Nazi military service, the family uses their singing act as cover to flee to neutral Switzerland. Winner of five Tonys including Best Musical. Paul Marino leads discussion. Sponsor: Chases on the Beach – Where It's Always Sunny. $10 includes wine or water

MUSIC NIGHT / JAN 14 FRIDAY 7-9pm

SMOKEHOUSE

Anthony "Packrat" Thompson and his Men of the Swamp (aka Smokehouse) define a genre referred to as swamp blues, a homegrown, organic format at home in the bayous and lowlands. Packrat calls it "greasy." Influenced by artists like Howlin' Wolf and Muddy Waters, Packrat's band is prone to slipping into a "jam" that stretches a single song to 10 minutes. It's tough to sit still! Sponsors: Anne and Dennis Higginbotham.
