kinetic image moves and changes as the viewer's perspective changes. Artist's Talk 6pm. Exhibition through Dec 29.

Where's The Beef? by Curtis Houston.

Pottery works explore the nostalgia, decadence and absurdity of the 1980s by using AI-generated images and decals to reference the pop culture, movies, toys, comics and music of that decade. Inspired by the famous Wendy's fast-food chain slogan, the exhibition asks the viewer to question the substance and meaning of the images they consume. Artist's Talk 6pm. Exhibition through Dec 30.

All 1st Saturday events are free and open to the public.
Wine and beer available for purchase.

ART IN THE FORM OF FILM

SAVING MR. BANKS | DECEMBER 15

FRIDAY 5:45-9pm

Have you ever wondered who could have conjured up such a magical nanny as Mary Poppins? You'll find the heartbreaking answer in this 2013 film. We also learn how very close Mary Poppins (1964), one of Disney's most endearing favorites, came to never being made. Tom Hanks plays Walt and Emma Thompson is the persnickety author who opposes, for personal reasons, the inclusion of any whimsical music or animation in the story. Instructor Paul Marino introduces the film, raises questions and hosts a post-viewing discussion. Presented and sponsored by Cindy and Paul Marino.

$10 includes glass of wine or bottle of beer
